The question of grant of certificates signed by the Dewan & by the Dy. Comrs of Dts to persons for rendering Public Services:—

Subd

1) The Consolidated list of persons who have rendered public services, compiled from the recommendations received from the Deputy Commissioners of Dts and Heads of departments, in connection with the awards during the last Dasara, is put up. The names of the persons who were awarded Public Service Medals in the Dasara Durbars of 1935 are indicated in the Remarks Column in the Consolidated list. It is usual to select persons for the grant of certificates signed by the Dewan or by the Dy. Comrs of Dts, from among the others in this list. As regards the general principle ~~to be followed in the matter of selection~~ for certificates, kind reference is invited to the Council Resolution dated 30th Sept. 1926 and Submission Note dated 1st Oct. 1926. in the CB file no. 13-26 (1-5, 38 to 48) put up.

Subd for orders.

K.M.R 2/11/35

2) A typed statement of selected gentlemen, giving the services in abstract & suggesting certificates signed by the Dewan or Dy Comr in each case is submitted. Those whose services or donations are not up to standard are omitted in the typed Statement.

3) I wonder if the certificates are to be signed by the Dewan). Are they ready? 20/11

Remarks 5/12/35

14) The officer who recommended recognition of the public services of these two gentlemen is the Senior Surgeon (Vide his letter d. 19.8.35) ... H.T

It is seen that the Senior Surgeon stated that these had "rendered meritorious public Service by giving handsome donations to the Medical Dept." and in the accompanying statement Messrs R.B Siddabasavaradhya & Rama Ramaswami Chetty were stated to have each given Rs 4000 for an operation theatre (Chintamani).

15) P.S. Medals (or the recognition) are conferred only in cases where the donations are actually paid or the work completed. From the DS-Comrs report it appears that the services referred to by the Senior Surgeon were only in the nature of promises to put up buildings and not yet fulfilled completely.

16) The names are in the circumstances to be omitted from the present list. The orders with

Dear Sir,

Referring to your Confidential D.O. letter No:1304/ C.B. 6-35 dated the 3rd instant, regarding the recognition of public services rendered by Messrs: R. B. Sidhabasavaradhya and Nama Ramaswami Setti, Chintamani, I write to bring to notice - that these two donors have not paid Rs.4,000/- each but are constructing the buildings themselves for that estimated amount. The buildings have come up to only a few feet above basement - level and are not yet complete. It is therefore a matter for consideration whether the recognition of Government should be conveyed immediately or after the completion of the buildings. I await your further instructions before I communicate the proposed recognition to them.
